How is your financial adviser paid?

The fees and commissions payable Lifetime Private Wealth are explained in Part one of the FSG and also below. Consultum may retain up to 5 per cent of these fees and commissions and then pay the balance to Lifetime Private Wealth, which engages your adviser to provide financial services. Of the amount received by Lifetime Private Wealth from Consultum, your adviser is paid a salary, part of which may cover your adviser's operational expenses.

Service and advice fees paid by you

Your initial appointment is complimentary. At this meeting, Peter will explain how Lifetime Financial Advisers operates, what you can expect and the payment options. All fees and commissions payable by you will be explained to you at the time advice is given and will also be detailed in a Statement of Advice, Record of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement(s).

You will have the ability to select your preferred payment option from the options below prior to the provision of advice. All amounts noted below are inclusive of GST:

Fee for service - once-off - The product provider deducts a once-off fee for the services provided to you in relation to your account. This fee may be up to 1.16 per cent of assets under advice and the total fee will depend on complexity and time involved. Alternatively you may elect to pay the once off fee for service by direct payment.

Statement of Advice (SoA) – A statement of advice fee is charged to cover the cost of researching, developing and preparing your advice document. This fee ranges from $1,500 to $10,000 depending on complexity. Additionally our current hourly based rate is $250 per hour.

Fee for service – ongoing – An ongoing fee for service represents the cost of providing our ongoing professional services to you. A summary of the services which you receive for this fee is contained in the SoA or in our services agreement. This fee may be up to 1.1 per cent per annum of assets under advice or charged as a flat dollar fee of up to $10,000, or a combination of both options can be negotiated depending on the complexity of the advice and the agreed level of service being provided.

Commission for life risk insurance products – Policies issued from 1 January 2018

Initial commission payable under an upfront structure will be capped at 88 per cent, then reduce to 77 per cent from 1 January 2019, before settling at 66 per cent from 1 January 2020. Ongoing commission under an upfront structure will be capped at 22 per cent of the annual premium paid. Both initial and ongoing commission under a level structure will continue to be capped at 37 per cent.

Increases to Policies issued before 1 January 2018

There may be an initial commission payable of up to 130 per cent of the first year's annual premium and then ongoing commission of up to 37 per cent of the annual premium paid.

Other benefits

In addition to the "Other benefits" section disclosed in part one, Lifetime Private Wealth has an arrangement in place with Lifetime Mortgage Solutions. If you are referred to Lifetime Mortgage Solutions by Peter Higgins and you proceed with the recommendations, a referral payment will be made to Peter Higgins.
